PART 1461—OILSEEDS, FATS AND OILS [Food Distribution Order 14—Peanut Oil]

RESTRICTIONS ON PURCHASE AND SALE OF PEANUT OIL

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9280, dated December 5, 1942, and to assure adequate supplies of vegetable oils to meet essential war needs, It is hereby ordered, as follows:

§ 1461.18 Restrictions on purchase and sale of peanut oil.—(a) Sales permitted only to refiners under contract with Commodity Credit Corporation. Notwithstanding existing contracts or commitments, no person shall, on or after February 5, 1943, sell or deliver, or contract for the sale or delivery of, crude peanut oil to any person who has not entered into the Refiner Contract with the Commodity Credit Corporation, and no person who has not entered into the Refiner Contract with the Commodity Credit Corporation shall purchase or accept delivery of, or contract for the purchase or delivery of, any crude peanut oil.

(b) Peanut oil reserved for Commodity Credit Corporation. Notwithstanding existing contracts or commitments, every person who has entered into the Refiner Contract with the Commodity Credit Corporation shall tender to the Commodity Credit Corporation for purchase pursuant to the terms of such Refiner Contract a quantity of crude peanut oil equal to at least twenty-five (25) per centum of the total quantity of crude peanut oil manufactured or received by him on or after February 5, 1943. Crude peanut oil purchased by the Commodity Credit Corporation up to and including a quantity equal to twenty-five (25) per centum of the total quantity of crude peanut oil manufactured or received by each such person on or after February 5, 1943, shall, unless otherwise determined by the Commodity Credit Corporation, not be repurchased by such person, but shall be refined and stored, and insured by him for the account of the Commodity Credit Corporation, as provided in such Refiner Contract.

(c) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall maintain such records for such periods of time, and shall execute and file such reports and submit such information as the Director may from time to time request or direct.

(d) Audits and inspections. Every person subject to this order shall permit inspection of his stocks of crude and refined vegetable oils, of his premises used for the refining, processing, or storing of such oils, and of his books, records and accounts by the Director.

(e) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply in writing (in triplicate) for relief to the Director, setting forth in said petition all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate and such action shall be final.

tract a quantity of crude peanut oil equal to at least twenty-five (25) per centum of the total quantity of crude peanut oil manufactured or received by him on or after February 5, 1943. Crude peanut oil purchased by the Commodity Credit Corporation up to and including of any Department or agency of the United States may be prohibited from receiving or making further deliveries of any material subject to allocation and such further action may be taken against him as the Director deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecution under section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. § 80, 1940 ed.), under paragraph 5 of Section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(g) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Food Distribution Administration, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 14.

tion, Washington, D. C., Ref: FD 14.

(h) Definitions. (1) "Refiner Contract," as used herein, means the contract entitled "Refiner Contract, 1942 Vegetable Oils Program" entered into between the Commodity Credit Corporation and refiners of vegetable oils.

(2) "Person," as used herein, means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other business unit, whether incorporated or not.

(3) "Director" means the Director of Food Distribution, United States Department of Agriculture, or any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture designated by such Director.

(i) Effective date. This order shall become effective as of 12:01 a.m., e. w.t., February 5, 1943.
